Chapter 16 Academic Affairs Committee

Article 65 (Academic Affairs Committee) The University shall operate the Academic Affairs Committee in order to comprehensively review important matters related to policies of education and the operations of this University.

Article 66 (Organization) The Academic Affairs Committee shall be composed of the President, Dean of Academic Affairs, Director, Dean of Undergraduate Schools, Division Dean, Head of Affiliated Institutes designated by the President. Within these provisions, the President may have other persons attend the committee and present opinions. <Mar. 1, 2015>

Article 67 (Convocation) The Academic Affairs Committee shall be convened and chaired by the President.

Article 68 (Review Matters) The Academic Affairs Committee shall review important matters as described below.

1. Proposed amendments to the school regulations.
2. Matters of establishment and abolishment of undergraduate programs and affiliated institutes.
4. Matters on awards and disciplinary actions.
5. Matters related to other operations of the University.