Chapter 2 Class Period, Period of Attendance

Article 4 (Class Period) ① The course of study of the University extends over four years. However, Architectural Design Major extends over five years.

② Students who have completed a full four year program of study in the sixth or seventh semester and have passed the graduation thesis review, and those who have an average GPA of 4.3 (A) or higher for the entire coursework completed for the degree may be permitted an early graduation.

③ Details on the implementation of an early graduation shall be established by the President of the University.

Article 5 (Period of Attendance) ① The period of attendance of the University is eight years (ten years for Architectural Design Major of five year course). Provided, however the attendance period of re-admitted students and transfer students may not exceed twice the amount of years of study of the University.

② The leave of absence shall not be included in the period of attendance.

③ Students who have not completed the entire coursework required for the degree in the University shall be removed from the school register even if they have exceeded the period of attendance. Provided however, the period of attendance for disabled students is not restricted. Students who fail to complete a degree program at the University within the enrollment time limit shall be dismissed from the University.
